Panel: Priority Actions for the SDGs and Leave No One Behind Agenda in South Asia

A year into the SDGs, this panel will:

1. raise the prominence of the ‘leave no one behind’ agenda early on in the SDGs’ implementation process in South Asia.
2. solicit advice from policymakers and civil society, and highlight in concrete terms, the priority actions the region needs to take in the first 1,000 days of the SDGs to push for a strong start to this agenda.
3. present the current state of evidence on South Asia’s likely performance on the SDGs and on leaving no one behind disaggregated for the region and for the specific countries in it.
4. build and strengthen relationships with the respective stakeholders (policymakers, practitioners, and civil society) involved in advancing this agenda.
